Miss Nobody

SEPTEMBER 16 R SRP $26.98

Unlucky in love, living at home with her eccentric mom and stuck in a dead-end secretarial job, Sarah Jane McKinney longs for more out of life. She soon finds, however, that opportunities abound for a girl with a killer instinct. A murderous fable of modern success and love, Miss Nobody is a darkly comic look at one woman's rise up the corporate ladder and the delightful – but complicated – romance that ensues. Starring Leslie Bibb, Adam Goldberg, Kathy Baker, Brandon Routh, Vivica A. Fox, Missi Pyle and Barry Bostwick.

The Entitled

SEPTEMBER 6  SRP $26.98

Without the security of the job he wants or the future he dreamed of, Paul Dynan, plans the perfect crime to help his struggling family - extort a fortune from three wealthy men. The plan: to abduct their socialite children and collect a healthy ransom of $3-million dollars. Over the course of one long night, Paul and his accomplices hold the rich kids hostage awaiting the $3-million ransom with little idea of the secret that will surface between the fathers when they are forced to choose between their children and their money. Once blood is shed and things go horribly wrong, Paul must flight to stay one step ahead of his own twisted game.

Everything Must Go

SEPTEMBER 6  SRP $27.98

Adapted and directed by Dan Rush, and based on a short story by Raymond Carver, EVERYTHING MUST GO tells the story of NICK HALSEY (WILL FERRELL) a career salesman whose days of being on top are long gone. The same day Nick gets fired, for falling off the wagon one last time, he returns home to discover his wife has left him, changed the locks on their suburban home and dumped all his possessions out on the front yard. Faced with his life imploding, Nick puts it all on the line - or more properly, on the lawn - reluctantly holding a yard sale that becomes a unique strategy for survival.

The Ledge

SEPTEMBER 27  SRP $24.98

After embarking on a passionate affair with his evangelical neighbor's wife (Tyler), Gavin ('Sons of Anarchy's' Hunnam) soon finds himself in a battle of wills that will have life or death consequences. As a non-believing atheist, Gavin is lured by her lover's husband ('Insidious' Wilson) to the ledge of a high rise and told he has one hour to make a choice between his life or the one he loves. Without faith in an afterlife, will he be able to make a decision? It's up to police officer Hollis (Howard) to save both their lives but the clock is ticking in this edge-of-your-seat film that will leave you gasping until the final frame.
